Card Sharks Eye North Torrance Canasta Party

Canasta sharks throughout the North Torrance area have been practicing milder this week in preparation for the festive event planned for McMaisters Hall at 174th and Yukon Saturday night.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the residents will gather at the invitation of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association for an evening of canasta, pinch, bridge and 500 rummy. Prizes have been selected for the high scorers.

Topping off the evening will be an auction of box desserts brought by the ladies of the "McMaister Park Playtime" is the theme of the float entered by the NTCIA in the Torrance Area Youth Band Parade scheduled for Saturday afternoon. The float will feature children playing on a swing, teeter-totter and merry-go-round.

The one power strong enough to banish the war spirit from this world is the power of religion.

Going in as senior vice-commander will be Mike Vaca. H. Huddleston will be junior vice-commander and Vern Cole will be installed as the quartermaster.

Taking office as the adjutant will be Harry Green, while other officers to be installed include George Warburton, chaplain; Carl Mirabella, officer of the day and Jess Dean, R. A. Riegles and R. B. DeCamp, trustees.

NEWELL WAYT
... Takes Over Cub

Wayt Takes Over As Cubmaster For Pack 741-C

Facing his first pack meeting as a Cubmaster tomorrow night will be Newell Wayt, of 815 Arlington avenue, who was recently named to head Pack 741-C sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

Art Work by Students to Go on Block

Art and photography work by El Camino College students will be on sale at the college first annual art show to be given May 25 through May 27 from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the college Campus Center. The exhibit is open to the public. The El Camino College campus is located on the corner of Greenshaw and Redondo Beach boulevards.

Entries featured in the show will be oil painting, water color, graphic drawings, ceramics, sculpture, photography, and jewelry. All entries are limited to students currently enrolled in an art class at El Camino.

Judges will be known painters, craftsmen, critics and ceramists not connected with the school.

Art class advisors, Miss Mildred Walker and Donald Green, will assist in supervising the show.

The new Cubmaster was named to succeed Paul Shinoda.

Wayt, who is employed at Torrance Metals, said that tomorrow night's meeting, scheduled for 7:30 at the Baptist Church, will see several of the Cub Scouts promoted and several receive awards.
